Maio e governo del segretario socialista romano ricominciò con l'obiettivo di far fare il giro del proprio ministero. Il ministro della Sanità, Carlo Azeglio, si era recato ad Asinara per controllare la situazione. L'isola era stata dichiarata zona di quarantena per il morbo di Asinara, una malattia che si trasmetteva per via aerea e che era molto pericolosa. Azeglio era stato informato che la situazione era sotto controllo e che non c'era più bisogno di quarantena. Tuttavia, quando si recò sull'isola, scoprì che la situazione era molto diversa. I medici non avevano fatto i controlli necessari e la malattia si era diffusa. Azeglio si infuriò e ordinò che tutti i medici e i personale sanitario fossero trasferiti a terra. Inoltre, fece evacuare tutti i malati e li ricoverò in ospedali di terra. La situazione si calmò e la quarantena fu abolita.

V tomto čase však máme k dispozici jen velmi málo informací o tom, jak se tato situace vyvíjí. Podle posledních údajů z roku 1997, které poskytl Národní úřad pro statistiku, se podíl lidí, kteří jsou bez práce, zvýšil z 10,2 procenta v roce 1995 na 11,2 procenta v roce 1996 a na 12,2 procenta v roce 1997. V tomto období se také zvýšil podíl lidí, kteří jsou bez práce déle než šest měsíců, z 3,2 procenta v roce 1995 na 3,8 procenta v roce 1996 a na 4,2 procenta v roce 1997.
